Strengths I have -

- Programming
- Computer Networking
- Troubleshooting
- Debugging
- Problem-Solving

Values I have –

- Mentor People about Computer Science
- Making Internet a Safer Place
- Investigating Cyber Crimes

Clarifying Questions –

Ques 1. What most interests me about the field cybersecurity?

Ans. I have been curious about computers my whole life and I think cybersecurity is the correct solution to learn more about computers and make some impact on the computer science field.

Ques 2. Who is the audience for my professional statement?

Ans. Anyone who wants to save themselves or their organization, company, startup anything computer. I love computers and want to make them secure as possible as it can be.

Ques 3. In what ways can my strengths, values, and interest in cybersecurity support the security goals of various organizations?

Ans. I think I can make their software way more secure as I have a programming / development background also I love computers, so I always stay curious about getting into them and how to secure them after getting in.

Professional Statement

Driven by a passion for computer science and making the internet a safer place, I leverage my strengths in programming, computer networking, and problem-solving to identify and mitigate cyber threats. My dedication to mentoring others and investigating cybercrimes aligns perfectly with my desire to strengthen the security posture of organizations and contribute to a more secure digital landscape.